

Day 1 Agenda – January 13, 2021 (9am to 2pm)

- 9:00 – 9:10: Introduction and Opening Remarks
- Welcome and ground rules
  - Discuss overview of Vision Statement and the goals of this technical forum and next steps in the process
- 9:10 – 10:10: Overview of state energy laws, policies, perspectives
- Presentations by states on the relevant laws, policies, perspectives that drive energy policy in the states and highlights of state modeling related to the carbon reduction goals and mandates of some states
- 10:10 – 10:20: Break
- 10:20 – 12:50: Introduction to the regional electric market in New England
- 10:20 – 11:30: NEPOOL – Dave Cavanaugh
- Who/what is NEPOOL?
    - Brief overview of history of NEPOOL
    - Explanation of stakeholder process and sectors
  - High-level overview of existing NEPOOL initiatives:
    - Future Grid Reliability Study
    - Future Market Pathways
  - Questions from audience
- 11:30 – 11:40: Break
- 11:40 – 12:50: ISO-NE – Eric Johnson
- Who/what is ISO New England?
  - What is resource adequacy?
  - Why does the ISO administer wholesale markets for energy?
    - What is a forward capacity market?
    - What other markets are part of the wholesale markets (e.g., the energy and ancillary service markets)?
  - Questions from audience
- 12:50 – 12:55: NESCOE: Overview and Role – Co-chairs
- 12:55 – 1:25: Break

1:25 – 1:55:

Overview of the five market design principles espoused in the Vision Statement

- Discussion of why these five market design principles are relevant/pivotal to the New England States' support for any alternative market design

1:55 – 2:00:

Close with preview for Day 2